

This is in regards to the Super Bowl half-time show. I hope this is a wake up call to the FCC on the downhill slide primetime tv has taken. We monitor what are children watch very carefully, but you can't always catch it all. I know there are entertainers out there who push the envelope, just to show they can, but this is getting ridiculous! Please start cracking down on these people and making the punishment hash. It wasn't just Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake's stunt that was so bad, it was the other entertainers too. The lyrics were awful as well as the dancing. Please get the tv cleaned back up, it's getting way out of control!
